96 Anniversary Of War Ending

ON COLLEGE TRIP

J. C. Caldwell, Jr., student at Virginia Polytechnic institute, a Blacksburg, Va., has recently been elected president of the joint chapter of American Institute of Electrical Engineers and Institute of Radio Engineers, at V. P. I.

He will represent the V. P. I chapter this week, April 5, 6, and 7, at a convention of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers, which will be held at Tulane University in New Orleans. Jack will be accompanied by Professor Claudius Lee and four other students from V. P. I.

Chances are that there will not be as many people in Appomattox this Sunday, April 9, as there were ninety-six years ago on the same date. At that time the Army of Northern Virginia, under Gen. Lee, and the Army of the Potomac, under Grant, here to concede the Civil War. Altogether, on that occasion, there were about 140,000 in the area. They were strung out in all directions, with supply wagons, stragglers, camp followers, etc. Lee actually had only about 9,000 effective troops.

However, although there may not be as many here this April 9, it is increasingly evident that more and more people come to historic Appomattox.

Attendance at the Appomattox Court House National Historical Park has rapidly increased. Last year the total visitation at the Old Court House was approximately 120,000. This year it will be more. Five years ago, it was only about half that number. By 1965, it is probable that over 250,000 a year will come by to see America's sacred Peace Shrine.

It is understood that there has been a marked increase in visitation at the McLean House, scene of the meeting of Lee and Grant, since the National Park Service agreed to have it open every day. Interest in the proposed rebuilding of the Old Court House building itself has also tended to bring in more visitors.

Additional restoration work is being put on the agenda for Appomattox.

A nice spring week-end could very probably bring a very great number of visitors here this 96th anniversary observation.

Two events are planned:

A Vesper Religious Service at 3 P. M. at the Old Court House, and opening of the restored Woodson Law Office.

PARK SERVICE PROGRAM

The National Park Service will observe the 96th Anniversary of the close of the Civil War with an "Open House" on April 9th and 10th, at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park. An important feature of this year's observance will be the opening of the John W. Woodson Law Office, Park Superintendent Thomas F. Norris, announced today.

Born in 1824, John Woodson is listed as a practicing attorney at Appomattox in 1860. His office has been restored with simple furnishings to tell the story of the essential part played by the country lawyer in the life of the county seat.

This is another step in the process of restoring the present-day Appomattox Court House to its former 1865 appearance as a quiet county seat where a nation again found peace and unity.

F. H. A. MEETING

The Appomattox Chapter of F. H. A. met on March 23, in the gymnasium. In the absence of the president, Joyce Tolley, vice-president, called the meeting to order. Devotion was given by Jane Stanley. "Girl of the Month" for March is Joan Brown. She is an outstanding member. The Federation F. H. A. Volleyball Tournament will be held at Appomattox High School gymnasium on April 7, at 7:00 o'clock. It was decided that we would attend F. H. A. - F. F. A. Camp at Smithfield in June. Mother and Daughter Banquet will be held on April 13, at 6:00 o'clock.

Treasurer's report was given by Velma Wooten.

A program on "Quiz Show on F. H. A." was given by Catherint Richardson, Jane Martin, Barbara Thomas and Susanne Gills.
